WREN SENTENCED TO FIFTEEN YEARS

JURY OUT FROM 2:30 P. M. TO 5:30 A. M.

REDUCED TO 2 D DEGREE

Defense Is Satisfied With Verdict And Will Not Appeal To Higher Court

Clarinda, Nov. 5.—Raymond (Mike) Wren will serve fifteen years in the Iowa state penitentiary for the killing of his chum, Ross Hammond, on the morning of August 6.

The taking of testimony in the case was completed Thursday morning. The attorneys finished their arguments just before noon yesterday, and the judge began his instructions at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At 2:30 o'clock the jury retired.

All afternoon and all night, with only short recesses for meals, the jury stuck to its work. At 5:30 o'clock this morning they announced they had reached a verdict and Judge E. B. Woodruff received it in open court. He announced that he would reveal the verdict at 12 o'clock, later changed it to 1:30 o'clock and then returned to the hour first set, in order to allow attorneys to make train connections.

The jury's verdict found Wren guilty of murder in the second degree. The judge imposed a sentence of fifteen years in the penitentiary.

The verdict was not a surprise to those who had followed the case closely. It is understood the jurors were almost equally divided on conviction of first degree murder, second degree murder and manslaughter. None declared for acquittal.

The sentence was fixed by Judge Woodruff after conferring with attorneys for the state and the defense. With the penalty fixed at fifteen years, the defense counsel agreed not to appeal the case.

The jury included one woman, Mrs. L. L. Baker of Shenandoah, the wife of a physician, and a minister, the Rev. J. W. Cabbage of Shambaugh, a pastor of the Church of God. The other members of the jury were Ben Welch, T. C. Wagaman, Clyde Cooper, H. D. Meyers and Glen Shum of Clarinda; Charles Johnson, J. A. Boyd, Isaac Vail and Carl Anderson of Shenandoah, and Will Dillinger of Nebraska township.

Wren's home was near Gower. He formerly was employed at Burlington Junction and is known here. The murdered man formerly lived at Bolckow. His mother, Mrs. Anna Hammond, has been making her home in Maryville.

Wren shot Hammond on the morning of August 6 while the two were on their way to Maryville from Baker, Ore. He attempted to show on the witness stand that the shooting was accidental and in self defense.

TARKIO WINS IN ANNUAL BATTLE

BAD "BREAKS" MAKE SCORE LOOK BAD, 23-6

SECOND HALF WAS 6-0

Except for Second Quarter, Bearcats Held Advantage Over Weightier Opponents

For another year the annual gridiron struggle between the State Teachers College Bearcats and Tarkio is over, and to the latter belongs the spoils of victory, for Tarkio scored 23 points yesterday to the Bearcats' 6.

All the scoring was done in two quarters, the second and the fourth. It was the second that was disastrous to Maryville hopes, for in that period, Tarkio scored three touchdowns and a field goal, failing to kick goal after one of the touchdowns. This made the score 23-0 at the end of the first half.

The second half was Maryville's. It was then that the Bearcats scored their only touchdown and played their best football. Tarkio was held scoreless.

Whatever the result of the game, the contest between the student bodies of the two schools, in life and pep and loyalty and organized cheering, was overwhelmingly in S. T. C.'s favor. The Bearcats were supported from the sidelines by almost as large a contingent of rooters from Maryville as the Tarkio school was able to furnish on its own grounds. The Maryville delegation never let down in their support of their team, and their indomitable spirit may have had something to do with the gallant comeback staged by the Bearcats in the second half.

Coach Sprong did not have his strongest line-up at the start of the game. Lundt, with an injured hand did not go in at half back until near the end of the first half, and Pickens was not used until the second half.

Tarkio outweighed the Bearcat probably twenty pounds to the man. Williams, playing both in the line and in the back field, towered far above any Maryville man, should easily gain a place on the state team. Wilson, right tackle, is also an exceptionally big man.

One of Tarkio's touchdowns was unearned. The other two were free fortune. Seven points behind, the Bearcats resorted to forward passes in the fatal second quarter, and on two occasions the ball found its way into the arms of a Tarkio man, who ran for a touchdown, once forty yards and once fifty.

A fifteen-yard penalty imposed on the Bearcats in the first quarter may have been the turning point of the game. Tarkio kicked off to Maryville and the ball was returned to the thirty yard line. A fumble gave the ball to the Tarks on the Bearcats' thirty-five yard line. They made fifteen yards on three line smashes, but lost five yards on an end run and after trying a forward pass, which failed, they attempted a dropkick, which was blocked and it was Maryville's ball. Webb immediately kicked out of danger. Tarkio made a first down on three plunges, but again lost on an end run.

After a five-yard penalty, Tarkio attempted a forward pass. It was intercepted by Captain Dick Kirby, playing left end for the Bearcats. Closely pursued by Tarkio tacklers, he raced seventy yards before a desperate lunge by a pursuer stopped his progress. It was

Dad—Here's to YOU

We happened in a home the other night and over the parlor door saw the legend worked in red yarn on a porous plaster background, "What Is Home Without a Mother?" Across the room was another brief, "God Bless Our Home."

Now, what's the matter with "God Bless Our Dad?" He gets up early, lights the fire, boils an egg and gives the lawn a close shave while mother is still dreaming of how she is going to trim Mrs. Gotthe Stuff at bridge that afternoon.

He rustles the weekly hand-out for the butcher, the grocer, the milk man, the baker, along with several etc.'s and before he is home an hour on pay day his weekly stipend has shrunk to just the size of car fare and six sittings in the broad arm chair at the jitney dairy lunch palace.

If there is a strange noise in the house at night, Dad is kicked in the back and sent down stairs to find the burglar and kill him—or get put to sleep by a rap on the bean. Mother darns the socks, but Dad puts up for the socks in the first place, then the yarn and the needles, and patiently stands for the callouses on his feet which the darned socks make.

Mother puts up the fruit against Dad putting up the price of the fruit, the sugar and the jars. Dad buys chickens for the Sunday dinner, carves them for the family, and, after the rush, draws from the ruins the neck, or the other extremity.

"What is home without a mother?" Yes, that's all right, but, WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A FATHER? Ten to one it's a boarding house, father is under the slab and mother is the landlady!

DAD, HERE'S TO YOU! You've got your faults—you may have lots of 'em—but you're all right, and we'll miss you when you're gone.

HIGH SCHOOL WINS AN EASY VICTORY

LOCAL ELEVEN WINS OVER SAVANNAH, 25-0.

WILLOUGHBY PLAYS WELL

Diminutive Half-back Shares Starring Honors With O'Banion and Captain Carstens.

While many football fans were following the College Bearcats to Tarkio yesterday, those who remained at home were well rewarded by the high school's 25-0 victory over Savannah.

The result of the game was never in doubt. After a few minutes, the Maryville machine got under way and began a succession of advances down the field that resulted in four touchdowns. The Maryville backs made good gains through the holes opened in the line, and many forward passes were completed.

Maryville opened the game by kicking off to the visiting team. The line held [illegible] Savannah was forced to kick. [illegible] first downs before being [illegible] Savannah was also forced to kick. Barry fumbled the kick, but another Maryville man recovered. O'Banion then punted out of bounds and it was Savannah's ball on the forty-yard line. This was the only time during the game that the visitors appeared at all dangerous. The Maryville line soon stiffened, however, took the ball on downs and marched down the field for the first touchdown.

Willoughby, O'Banion and Carstens were the outstanding stars for Maryville. Willoughby played all the game, being used at both halfback positions and at quarter. He made several long gains on end runs and caught several forward passes. O'Banion outpunted his opponent all during the game, and in the second quarter he broke through the Savannah line and a pretty exhibition of open-field running, covered forty yards for a touchdown. Carstens was on the receiving end for several forward passes.

O'Banion made two touchdowns, Willoughby one and Barry one.

This afternoon the high school second team is playing with Conception College at Conception. A game between the two teams two weeks ago resulted in a 19-18 victory for the local team.

DR. O L CURL TO PREACH THIRD OF SERMON SERIES

Will Give Scientific Proofs of Theory of Evolution at First M. E. Church.

Dr. O. L. Curl will again speak upon "Evolution" at the First Methodist Church tomorrow night. This is the third lecture in the series he is delivering upon the subject of evolution.

Last Sunday evening the congregation of the church with a few sitting in the gallery, almost to a person, by a show of hands, requested that he deliver another lecture continuing the particular phase which he was discussing at that time. After the congregation had listened with marked attention for an hour the speaker said that he had just arrived at the place where his real lecture began.

The two previous lectures have dealt with science and evolution from the Biblical point of view and have shown that the teachings of scientists who are Christians in no way conflict with the Bible, and they have also cleared the ground for a more strictly scientific exposition of the theory of evolution itself. The lecture tomorrow evening will deal with the general theory of evolution and show the proofs of it, not from the Biblical, but from the scientific point of view.

The sermon which was to have been given tomorrow evening on Evangelism and Evolution will be delivered Sunday evening, November 13, and will show the scientific bearing for the hope held out for the salvation of the world and the regeneration of human souls.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

MR. AND MRS. J. F. GRAY OF MARYVILLE MARRIED 50 YEARS

RESIDENTS HERE 18 YRS

Mr. Gray Was Born and Raised in This County—Was Married At Old Xenia

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gray are celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary today at their home at 1011 North Main street, with a turkey dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Gray moved to Maryville from near Pickering to make their home about eighteen years ago and have been residents of this city since that time.

They were married on November 5, 1871 at Old Xenia at the home of the bride's father, George A. Downing, by the Rev. Mr. Venable, a Methodist minister. Mr. Gray was born and raised in Nodaway county about one mile west of Pickering. He was 75 years old on the 6th day of August. Mrs. Gray was born in Andrew County 69 years ago.

They have three children, L. H. Gray of Pickering; Mrs. J. E. Alexander of Lincoln; and Mrs. C. L. Ellis of Devils Lake, N. Dak.

The guests at the dinner today were: Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. C. L. Ellis, Devils Lake, N. Dak.; Mrs. R. U. Shaw, Cambridge, Neb.; Mrs. Charles Cowels, Cambridge, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lahr of St. Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Gray and daughter, Beulah Marie; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gray and family, John Phylis and Marjorie of Pickering; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Downing and son, George, of Hopkins; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gray, living near Pickering and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gray of Maryville.

Leaves For Moberly

Mrs. G. H. Colbert left this morning for Moberly where she will visit at the home of her son, Herschel Colbert, and Mrs. Colbert for a week or ten days. She was joined there by Mr. Colbert who stopped for a week-end visit enroute home from the annual meeting of the State Teachers Association in St. Louis.

CABINET OF ASSASINATED JAPANESE PREMIER RESIGNS

Marquis Saionji Will Probably Head —New Body to Conduct the Government

Tokio, Nov. 5—The Japanese cabinet has resigned, following the assassination Friday of Premier Takassi Hara. Adivces to this effect today were sent to Baron Admiral Kato, now in Washington, who ranks next to the late Premier.

The resignation of the cabinet will not be accepted for a few days, probably pending plans for the formation of a new body. Indications late today were that Marquis Saionji will be instructed with the task of forming a new cabinet and will accept.

Premier Hara, the first commoner to become prime minister, will be buried Tuesday at Morioka, a little town, where he was born.

FATHERS AND SONS TO GO TO CHURCH

ALL SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO HAVE SPECIAL OBSERVANCE.

BANQUET TICKETS READY

Arrangements are Completed for Fourth Annual Gathering Next Thursday.

Father and Son Week will open tomorrow morning with special observance in all Maryville's protestant churches, either at Sunday school or the morning service. Every father is urged by the committee to attend Sunday school and church with his son, or, if he has none, with some other man's son.

At the First Baptist Sunday school, the following thirty-minute program will be given:

Scripture lesson—Miss Doris Culp.
Vocal solo—Miss Alice Allen.
Talk—Alfred Estes.
Talk—Miss Wilson.
Vocal solo—Richard Runyon.
Talk—Mrs. Eugene Ogden.

At the morning service, the Rev. Joseph A. Cooper will preach on "The Father and the Son." The DeMolays will attend the service in a body.

The class taught by E. M. Houchens will conduct the opening exercises of the First Methodist Sunday school, which will be a distinctly boys' program.

Prof. Burt W. Loomis will talk at the Sunday school hour at the Buchanan Street Methodist church. His subject will be "In Quest of Manhood's Best." There will be special music. At the morning service, the Rev. B. F. Cline's sermon will be "To the Fathers and Sons."

The program for the Presbyterian and Christian Sunday Schools have not been made public, but there will be special talks and music.

The tickets for the father and son banquet to be given at the First Baptist church at 7 o'clock Thursday night will be in the hands of each Sunday school superintendent Sunday morning.

Every father is urged to be prepared at that time to purchase a ticket for himself and son," said R. C. Seal, president of the Nodaway County Sunday School Association, under whose auspices the week is being observed. "If he has no son, he should buy one for himself and some boy who has no father.

"Those who have attended these banquets in past years are enthusiastic about them. Those who have never attended don't know what they have missed. Come and enjoy an evening with your son."

The menu for the banquet, which is the fourth annual gathering of fathers and sons, is as follows:

Celery
Chicken Pie
Boston Baked Beans
Creamed Potatoes
Cabbage Salad
Bread and Butter Jelly
Pumpkin Pie with Whipped Cream
Coffee

SEN. LAFOLLETTE DEMANDS RESIGNATION OF MELLON

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5—Senator Lafollette in the Senate today demanded the retirement of Secretary Mellon of the treasury department. Lafollette charged that Mellon had laid down the principle that the wealthy cannot be made to bear their full burden of taxation.

THREATENED COAL STRIKE AVERTED

INJUNCTION SUSPENDED

U. S. Court of Appeals Orders A Rehearing On Check-Off System

Chicago, Nov. 5—Predictions that the striking miners in Indiana and Pennsylvania would return to work Monday were made today as a result of action by the United States Court of Appeals in ordering a rehearing of the federal injunction restraining continuance of the check-off system. The appeals court order suspended that portion of Judge Anderson's injunction prohibiting the check-off, pending a rehearing on November 16.

Columbus, Nov. 5—All miners are expected to return to work in compliance with instructions from the executives and mine leaders in Ohio, it was stated today. The belief was expressed that the Ohio coal operators will proceed as usual in observance of the check-off system.

Springfield, Nov. 5—The miners in western Pennsylvania coal fields were instructed today by John Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America to remain at work unless the operators had taken action to impair existing agreements. Lewis, who arrived here late last night, sent similar instructions to all districts advising them of action taken by the court of appeals at Chicago.

Lewis said he was very much pleased over the decision of the Chicago court and predicted it would be the means of settling a complicated situation. Lewis advised all local unions to be guided by the action of the operators.

CHARGES BOOTLEGGER PLOT TO CORRUPT DRY OFFICIALS

When Bribes Failed, Prohibition Agents Were Trapped and Shot Like Dogs

Washington, Nov. 5—Bootleggers plots to corrupt dry law officials with bribes and thus tear down the morale of the federal enforcement machine were officially disclosed today by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes.

Failing in efforts to bribe dry agents or officials, illicit booze promoters, he said, had inaugurated a reign of terror that culminated in the killing of several agents. The bootleggers and moonshiners set traps for dry agents and shoot them like dogs, said Haynes. Some of the leading bootleggers in the country are men of wealth and influence, he asserted.

READERS STILL DEMAND FICTION AT PUBLIC LIBRARY

Monthly Report Shows Few Calls For "Deep" Writings— 1,490 Readers In October

In spite of calls for "deeper" works by High School and College students the report of Miss Grace Langau, librarian of the Carnegie Free Public Library, shows that there was still an overwhelming preponderance in the demand for works of fiction during October. There were 569 juvenile readers, 490 of whom demanded fiction, and 630 books loaned from the general division, 561 of which were fiction.

The total number of books and magazines loaned was 1,096, an average per day of 42. Thirty-seven reader's cards were issued. There were 869 readers in the periodical room, 280 in the children's room and 205 in the reference room. There were 136 Sunday readers, making a total of 1,490 visitors during the month, or an average of 48 a day.

Fines collected during the month amounted to $8.85. Penny-a-day books brought $2.92 and other miscellaneous receipts brought the total to $13.02.

NEWSPAPERS AND THE ARMY

The interesting announcement is made that in future generals in the United States Army will be required to study current newspapers as a part of their regular course at the West Point Military Academy.

The students are required to study the current news and to analyze the significance of both local and foreign news and to draw their own deductions in a class quiz. It is said to be an exceedingly interesting innovation.

In this day the man who is not a newspaper reader may be educated in the old time sense of "book larnin" but he is not posted nor able to cope with current problems. The merchant who does not read the daily newspaper will soon be a back number. The dealer in any kind of marketable provisions must watch the ever changing markets closely and the farmer who does not read is not the one who keeps abrest of the times and makes the most of his opportunities.

The experiment of introducing newspapers in the public and private schools has been tried with good results. A teacher at West Plains, Missouri, thoroughly demonstrated the desirability of using newspapers at a part of the school course. He subscribed for sixty five daily and weekly papers and devoted a certain period each day to the study of them. The pupils were required to comment upon the news and editorials and the experiment proved to be so helpful that it was continued.

A general or other high officer in any army who does not know current history is at a great disadvantage. Like the doctor or lawyer or any other professional man, he needs not only theory and drilling but he needs a head full of current information. The newspapers of the day are the histories. The historian of the future may come along and write thing more classical and more formal but it will be based upon the current literature and there is no reason why the student should not be taught current history along with that of forgotten ages.

STATE ROAD DEPARTMENTS GET MATERIALS INTENDED FOR WAR

Many and varied are the articles of surplus war material which have been distributed through the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, among the various States for road-building purposes. These articles were turned over by the War Department to the Department of Agriculture under the Wadsworth-Kahn bill, the sole stipulation attached to their use being that they be devoted exclusively to the construction and maintenance of roads. The distribution, which has been in process for some time, probably will be completed about the middle of next year. The total value of machinery, equipment, and supplies, independent of motor vehicles, which has been distributed is more than $30,000,000. More than 10 closely written typewritten pages are required for the list of articles alone. In the list are included many thousands of iron and steel bars, including 126,497 pairs of splice bars for 25-pound rails; 48,460 axes of various kinds; several hundred automobile bodies, and many thousand tons of spare parts; 12,398 brooms of various kinds; 275,085 feet of assorted cable; 60 cameras; 1,291 miscellaneous flat and gondola cars; 1,200 miscellaneous concrete carts; 117,350 feet of cord; 1,553 compasses of various sizes; 1,108 field desks; 24 grindstones; 4,660 hammers; 16,078 sets of assorted harness; 1,999 hatchets; 382,282 feet of various kinds and sizes of hose; 31,025 assorted lanterns; 25,000 gross tons of rails; 888,907 spark plugs; 307,647 fence posts; 14 sets of micrometers; 15,802 sheets of sand paper; 156,436 picks; 47,900 sheets of roofing metal; 494,860 feet of various kinds and sizes of rope; 67 salamanders; 378,812 shovels of various kinds; 47,892 spades; 1,757 tractors of various types; 4,773 wagons; 7,960 wheelbarrows; and wire of various kinds amounting to approximately 2,000 tons.

OFFERS TO SELL "TIPS" FROM MARS FOR 20 CENTS

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 5—That he is receiving dream messages from Mars which are superior to all forms of government is the claim made by Professor Charles V. Barton, Santa Cruz, California, on a printed postcard he mailed to City Clerk Moore here.

Professor Barton informed Clerk Moore that he is able, also, to settle all problems of politics, tariff and graft, as well as all labor troubles.

An interesting portion of the communication was the assertion that, for this cure-all information the professor made a charge of only twenty cents to cover the cost of mailing and preparing two letters.

Text of Democratic Resolutions Criticising Administration

Resolutions adopted by the Democratic National Committee Tuesday at its meeting in St. Louis criticised the Republican national administration, condemned the Republican tax program, favored disarmament and praised former President Wilson and James M. Cox.

Applause greeted the mention of Wilson's name as "our stricken soldier," many of the members rising to their feet and applauding. Reference to Cox also was applauded.

The resolutions included an appreciation of George White of Marietta, O., who retired as chairman, and concluded with memorials to Champ Clark, W. T. Sanders of Alabama, and former Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane, who died since the last meeting of the committee.

The Clark resolution was offered by Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, who was chairman of the Resolutions Committee.

The resolutions follow:

Resolved, That we salute our stricken soldier of the world war, Woodrow Wilson, and felicitate him upon his steady progress toward health and strength, that we congratulate the fearless and faithful leader, James M. Cox, who seized the torch thrown from falling hands and held it high in the late campaign to the lasting glory of our party and the honor of our country; that we encourage all worthy and friendly rivalry for leadership of our great party, and pledge our fidelity and support to the one who shall be chosen to carry forward the banner of Democracy tattered in conflict, but unsoiled by any stain of dishonor. Be it further

Resolved, That we condemn and denounce the Republican party for its failure not only to redeem a single promise made in the late campaign, but also for its repudiation of those promise. With no leadership, no plan, no program, no policy, it has permitted industry to languish, business to stagnate, trade and commerce to decline and the whole commercial life of the country to be locked in the paralysis of hard times.

We denounce and condemn the taxation scheme of the Republican party, obviously designed to relieve the over-rich of their just burden of federal taxes, and to impose it to the same extent on the general public, too distressed by reason of the prevailing industrial paralysis to provide the comforts and often the necessities of life.

We congratulate the Democrats of the Senate and the House on their constructive work on the tax revision bill in behalf of the distribution of taxes upon rich and poor in just proportion. We further congratulate the Democratic Senators and Representatives upon their constant efforts to further legislation by constructive amendments that would relieve the deplorable condition accompanying Republican misrule, thus rendering the Democratic party the greatest service possible by first serving the interests of the country.

The reactionary forces of special privilege which now dominate our government have destroyed the splendid prosperity that prevailed during eight years of Democratic ontrol, in place of which we now have only financial uncertainty, busines anxiety, industrial depression and unparalleled idleness and distress.

Whereas, the people of the United States and of the world are burdened with enormous taxes due in large part to the preparation for and consequence of wars, with the Government of the United States expending 93 per cent of its income for wars past, present and future; and

Whereas, the Democratic party inaugurated the policy of a limitation of armament, first by legislative provision in 1916 and secondly through article 8 of the covenant of the League of Nations, which was proposed by a Democratic President and incorporated therein as a result of his efforts; and,

Whereas, the Democratic minorities in the Senate and in the House, with the aid of progressive Republicans, forced the administration to call the forthcoming conference on disarmament;

Resolved, That the Democratic National Committee expresses its gratification at the assembling of the disarmament conference, and further expresses the hope for its complete success.

The Democratic National Committee sends cordial greetings to the war veterans in the American Legion, now assembled in convention in the neighboring city of Kansas City, who fought for the ideals of humanity and civilization and the safety of democracy here and throughout the world.

Whereas, Since the last meeting of this committee death has removed from the counsels of the Democratic party and from the service of his country one o fthe party's ablest leaders and one of the nation's foremost statesmen, Hon. Champ Clark, long a member of Congress and Speaker of the National House of Representatives; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this committee extend expression of its profound sympathy to the members of his family. In his death the party loses one of its strongest forces and the country one of its most eminent statesmen. For more than a half century honored by Missouri in many capacities, and in turn honoring her by the loyalty and brilliancy of his service, his loss falls with particular force upon his state, and this committee expresses to the people of Missouri its deep sorrow at the loss of one of the state's noblest sons, a man whose name and fame belongs to the whole country and whose career is a brilliant chapter in the history of the nation.

Whereas, Since the last meeting of this committee death has removed Hon. W. T. Sanders of Alabama, one of its most highly esteemed members, we here with express our heartfelt sense of his loss as a friend and party adviser, and pay tribute to his worth as a man and Democrat. We extend our condolences to his family in their bereavement.

The Democratic National Committee expresses its profound regret at the death of Hon. Franklin K. Lane, an illustrious member of our party, who served his country in high official place and whose talents and character earned for him the universal esteem of his countrymen.

Resolved, That in accepting the resignation of Hon. George White as chairman of the Democratic National Committee, it is eminently appropriate that we should put upon record the committee's genuine appreciation of Mr. White's faithful and unselfish services to the party and our estimate of him as a man of the highest type and a Democrat of a robust nature, who believes in the principles of Democracy and may always be relied on to fight for the supremacy of the party. Mr. White, in his retirement from the chairmanship, may be assured that he has the cordial thanks of the Democrats of the nation, the warmest regards of this committee, and he always will have the very best wishes of us all for his happiness and sucess.

TO INVESTIGATE COST OF MOTOR-VEHICLE OPERATION

What it costs the Government to operate motor vehicles engaged in road building is shortly to be determined through a system of operative records recently installed by the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture.

Out of the surplus war material turned over by the War Department for distribution among the States, the bureau has retained a large number of motor vehicles, which are used principally on forest road work in the West. These motor vehicles are kept at vrious central points where shops are maintained for repair work.

Complete records will be kept of all oil, gasoline, and supplies of every kind used by each vehicle. Even the number of tube patches will be kept. Record will also be kept of the number of hours of shop work required; of days idle, and why; of distances loads are carried and the character of the loads; and the gross income from the operation of the vehicles. The information thus obtained will be combined with similar information from some of the States operating the surplus war equipment turned over to them and will form a valuable addition to the knowledge of the cost of highway transport.

Few Autos In Germany

Berlin, Nov. 5.—One of 800 Germans owns an automobile. The approximate number of registered motor cars in Germany at present is 70,000, according to the Berliner Mittagszeirtung.

Skidmore News.

Work was started on Skidmore's water system Tuesday morning when a test well was put down just east of the railroad bridge. This well is being tested today, but at time of going to press its capacity had not been determined. The well is 34 feet deep and the water stands 12 feet in it. The specifications call for a well 15 feet in diameter and 30 feet deep, and if the test shows an adequate capacity, the well will be dug there.

The city has secured a piece of ground just west of the school grounds, on which the tower is to be located, if the well now being tested should prove inadquate, another test well will be sunk there.

W. F. Barber's Spotted Poland sale held at the farm Monday, was quite successful. The offering averaged within a few cents of $30, which was considered good as compared with the prices at the recent sales. The top price was $81, paid for a gilt sired by the Senior Champion at the Missouri State Fair.

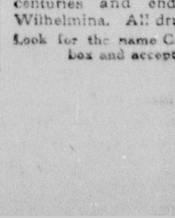
WOMAN AVOIDS AN OPERATION

Hope Nearly Gone, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her

Star, N. C.—"My monthly spells gave me so much trouble, sometimes they would last two weeks. I was treated by two doctors without relief and they both said I would have to have an operation. I had my trouble four years and was unfit to do anything, and had given up all hope of ever getting any better. I read about your medicine in the 'Primitive Baptist' paper and decided to try it. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for about seven months and now I am able to do my work. I shall never forget your medicine and you may publish this if you want to as it is true."—Mrs. J. F. HURSEY, Star, N. C.



Here is another woman who adds her testimony to the many whose letters we have already published, proving that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound often restores health to suffering women even after they have gone so far that an operation is deemed advisable. Therefore it will surely pay any woman who suffers from ailments peculiar to her sex to give this good old fashioned remedy a fair trial.

Listen to Reason

With the wisdom of a sage, Poor Richard said: "If you will not hear Reason, she will surely rap your knuckles."

The advertising you find in this paper is 100 per cent reason. Ignore its messages, and you neglect opportunity, overlook vital information and put yourself in a way to get your knuckles severly rapped. Heed them, and you cannot fail to profit.

Sometimes, the advertisements keep you from making an unwise purchase by pointing out the reasons why one article suits you better than another.

And ALWAYS they identify for you goods of unquestioned value. When a store or manufacturing concern puts its name on goods and tells you about them, you may be sure that they are worth consideration. It does not pay to advertise merchandise that is not good.

WOULD PUNISH WIFE DESERTERS BY WHIPPING

Los Angeles, Nov. 3—Mrs. Minnie Barton, probation officer of this city, suggests an effective remedy for wife deserters.

It is a rivival of the whipping post. "I know there are many who regard a whipping post as a barbarous punishment, but at the same time it must be remembered it has produced amazing results in Delaware," said Mrs. Barton. "Statistics show there has been only one wife deserter in the little Eastern state in a decade."

The probation officer pointed out that wife desertion has become a very common crime in Southern California in the last two years. She asserted that other evils are also the result of this offense and declared nothing will check it except drastic legislation.

There are five women house surgeons in English hospitals.

FRED WINELL HERE WITH LOAD OF HOGS

Fred Winell, regular shipper from Nodaway county, was here today in charge of a carload of hogs. Fred struck a good market, going home well pleased with results of his sale. He reports corn turning out well through his section of Nodaway County. A lot of it will be converted into pork, Fred says. Only a moderate number of cattle, however, are being fed out.—Stock Yards Journal.

Game Warden Here

John A. Wallace, of Maryville, deputy game warden for the Fourth congressional district, was in this county this week on official business. Mr. Wallace's territory is quite large, so deputies have been appointed for each county. Holt county's deputy game warden is Jasper O'Dell of Big Lake.

Mr. Wallace says he is anxious that all hunters and fishermen comply with the laws pertaining to licenses, seasons for game, etc. He says it is not fair to the citizens who comply with the law to allow violators to go free, and that he intends to see that the laws pertaining to hunting and fishing are enforced.—Mound City Jeffersonian News.

A Gift From the Sea

By MALCOLM BROWN.

Copyright, 1921, Western Newspaper Union

"I don't believe that we are ever going to be married, Frank," said Maisie Lester, looking sadly at her fiance. There were tears in her big gray eyes, and Frank Rhodes felt a sudden sting of shame as he perceived them.

He was twenty-eight and Maisie twenty-five, and they had been engaged four years. They ought to have been married long before, but Frank was what his folks called a "ne'er-do-well." He had never placed his foot upon the first rung of the ladder of success. He had been a clerk in half a dozen offices, but he wholly lacked the elements that make for financial affluence.

Maisie was a stenographer, and between them they made exactly forty dollars a week. Frank would have married her on that, but Maisie had enough worldly wisdom to refuse.

"No, my dear," she had said, "unless you can do something that will enable us to get our little farm we must remain unmarried.

Then Frank had had a wonderful idea. He would go west. And on the following day he was to start for St. Louis, which was as far as his money would carry him. They had met on the beach. It was to be their last meeting for years—perhaps forever.

"I shall always be true to you, Frank," Maisie whispered again, and clung to him; and they kissed each other as passionately as lovers do who are to be sundered for an incalculable age. They sat down side by side and Maisie traced his initials in the sand with the point of her umbrella.

F—R—A—N she had written, and then the ferrule encountered a soft and yielding substance that obliterated the fourth letter as her umbrella point dragged it forth from its hiding place. She looked curiously upon the shapeless substance. It was waxy, something like beeswax. She flung it into the air and turned to her sweetheart.

"Frank, dear, if you are to get that train home we had better be starting," she said.

He agreed, and they clung together in one last embrace, to be the last for goodness knew how long. Then they turned their steps sadly toward the station.

Frank turned and gripped Maisie's arm fiercely.

"Dear, I'm going to make good," he said. "If I can earn two thousand dollars we will have our farm."

Poor Frank! Maisie looked at him wistfully. Neither of them had ever owned fifty dollars at a time. And Frank was close on thirty.

They were walking among the straggling visitors to the little place. A nurse-girl wheeled two fat infants in a baby carriage. A ridiculous-looking little man with waxed mustaches was approaching them. Maisie opened her umbrella and held it over Frank—the action was instinctive and demonstrated her unconscious maternal attitude toward him. He linked his arm through hers, but he did not take the umbrella; he was far away, composing. Even Maisie was forgotten for a moment.

Maisie heard an exclamation behind her and the fat little man came panting toward her. She heard him blowing and panting. "Mees! Mees!" he was calling. He was evidently a Frenchman.

Maisie turned round. The little man was standing before her, and in his hand he held—that absurd mass of sea growth which she had flung away upon the beach. She must have let it fall into her umbrella, and, when she opened it, it had slipped out upon the boardwalk. Maisie felt furious.

"Yes, I dropped that," she said icily. "But it is of no value to me. Keep it, monsieur, if it interests you."

The fat little man looked quizzically at her.

"Mademoiselle is, without doubt, a millionaire?" he inquired blandly.

Something in his tone arrested Maisie's angry answer. There was a strange look in the little man's eyes.

"What is it?" she asked.

"Ambergris," said the fat little man. "The basis of perfumes. The most valuable of the sea's gifts. I am a perfumer, mademoiselle. I buy heem."

"How much?" asked Maisie.

"I giv' you—t'ree t'onsan' dollars," said the fat little man.

That was the only time Maisie ever scolded Frank for whistling.

Dog's Bark Almost Speech.

It is a curious fact that dogs bark only when they are in association with man. The dog in a state of nature merely grows, howls or whines. Possibly the act of barking is a dog's attempt at speech; it would certainly seem like it sometimes; as, for instance, when a pet dog sees you carrying food, he will bark as his way of asking for some. Another dog, who is in the habit of going to bed at sundown, will bark to tell you he is ready when the time comes. It is also curious that, although the dog is so much a friend of man, his name is used in many expressions of abuse and reproach. Such phrases probably arose in the East, where dogs are considered of very little account.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Jud Tunkins says aristocracy is going out of fashion so completely that anybody who wants a real elegant high-sounding title will have to join a secret society.

BOX SOCIAL AND SUPPER AT CONCEPTION JUNCTION

In Addition There Will Be Given A Comedy Drama "Too Much of a Good Thing"

The Daughters of Isabella and Knights of Columbus will give a box social and pie supper preceded by the great comedy drama "Too Much of a Good Thing" by local talent, at the Pastime Theater at Conception Junction, Tuesday evening, November 8, commencing at 8 P. M. The young people of Parnell have a number on the program which promises to be very clever.

Mrs. Perkins, a very percise stepmother—Elleen Archer.

Mr. Perkins, who aids Tom—Sam Allen.

Tom Perkins, a country cousin—Al Schaff.

Hattie and Nellie Perkins, two more Perkinses,—Fannie Pfeifer and Nellie Morrissey.

Eunice Bowles, a bold female—Lucy Archer.

Jennie Cowper, engaged to Fred—Nina Merrigan.

Polly, a waiting maid—Lyda Cordes

Following the program the boxes and pies will be sold after which a dance will be given.

ANTI-THIEF STEERING WHEEL DEVICE WORKS TOO WELL

A patent steering wheel lock device which worked at the wrong time caused L. D. Lynch who lives southwest of Maryville to run his Ford coupe into the ditch about three fourths of a mile south of town. The front of the car was badly damaged.

The device was designed to prevent theft of the car by making it impossible for the thief to control it. In some manner it became locked this afternoon and the car took a header into the ditch and through a fence.

Is Champion Gardener

Burt Rowley, cashier at the Real Estate Bank, is laying claim today gardener of Maryville. After harvesting one crop from his cabbage patch this summer, he went into the garden yesterday and found several well formed heads of medium size on the stalks. He also picked ripe tomatoes.

Several Maryville residents are still having new potatoes from their gardens, and red clover is in bloom in the fields, indicating the longest growing season this section has had in some time.

A CORRECTION.

In Wednesday's Democrat-Forum in the write-up of the injunction suit filed against the tax collector of Hughes township and W. B. Gex and Frank Shambargar, directors of the Morgan school district, to restrain them from collecting more than 30 cents on the $100 assessed valuation, it was stated that a tax levy had been voted to provide money for the purpose of improvements to the building. This levy was not voted, so we understand, but the directors had some improvements made on the school building and borrowed money from the Graham bank to pay for same.

Home Town Paper Week

It's very rare that the average newspaper boosts its own business, but gives quantities of space in boosting the affairs of others.

Somebody suggested that it was time for the newspapers of the country to adopt a week in which their own business should be given precedent, and the Democrat-Forum thoroughly endorses the idea.

The date set is the second week in November, from the 7th to the 12th, including that great world event, Armistice Day.

The official title for the week will be "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week."

Thousands of papers will join in this event, and our readers will hear more about it as time goes on.

Ever ready to help in any cause that is in the interests of a better community, better living conditions, and better government, we now ask the readers and advertisers of the Democrat-Forum to turn in and lend a hand during "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week," and boost for us.

MANY B.B. GAMES PLAYED IN COUNTY

SEASON NOW IN FULL SWING FOR SMALLER SCHOOLS

ELMO WINS TWO GAMES

Clearmont Splits Double Header With Braddyville; Barnard Loses Two To Elmo

Basket ball games were the main attractions in many of the county towns last night. And the games were good, bad and indifferent. One game, the Pickering game, wasn't indifferent, though, for the Ravenwood team forfeited the game and refused to finish it. The scores ranged from a 6 to 6 tie to 47 to 7. The season is now well under way and many good games are yet in store for the basket ball followers.

The game at Pickering last night resulted in Ravenwood forfeiting the game to Pickering, 2 to 0. Richards, the Ravenwood coach, protested against the way the referee was conducting the game and called his men off the court when the score stood 17 to 10 in favor of Pickering. Richards said that the game was allowed to run too loosely and the boys roughing it too much on such a small court. Richards of Hopkins refereed the game. The line-up for Pickering was Burch and Smith, forwards; Houston, center, and Rickard and Smith, guards. For Ravenwood, Jackson and Crawford, forwards, Ellsworth, center; Joy and Rhodes, guards.

In the girls game Ravenwood won from Pickering 17 to 7. Mrs. Oren Kelley of Pickering refereed the game. The line-ups were, Pickering: Hildred Hinton and Louise King, forwards; Helen Strong and Wanda Hinton, centers, and Hazel Lamport and Hazel Harrington, guards. Ravenwood: Kathryn Goodson and Clata Farr, forwards; Vivian Boatright and Alta Case, centers, and Lucile Craig and Bernice Swain, guards.

Both Pickering teams will journey to Guilford next week for a double header. The boys team as yet has a clean slate with six games won and none lost.

Both Guilford high school teams were victorious in their games last night played on the home court against Bolckow. The boys won their game 24 to 13 and the girls chalked up a 33 to 3 victory. Sylvia Rogers of Guilford refereed the girls' game and a teacher from Bolckow the boys' game. The line up of the Guilford girls were: Irene Britton and Dottie Davis, centers; Leona Whortman and Gladys Bledsoe, forwards and Oma Ross and Ella Reynolds, guards. For the boys the line-up was: Covey and Anderson, forwards; McKee, center, and Wallace, Rose and Curnutt, guards.

The Burlington Junction boys' basketball team won its third consecutive victory last night when they defeated the Skidmore High School team 24 to 15. McClain of Skidmore refereed the game. The line-up for Burlington Junction was —Groves and Ferguson, forwards; Parker, center, and Arnold and Harrington, guards. For Skidmore: Horn and Goslee, forwards; Peoples, center; H. Beverlin and G. Beverlin, guards.

In the girls' game between the two schools, Burlington Jnuction again won 10 to 7. Mrs. Ross Wallace of Clearmont refereed this game. The line-up for Burlington Junction was: Mildred Bearce and Wilda Jones, forwards; Ethel Jones and Retha Craig, centers, and Edith Engle and Lenora K. Ware, guards; for Skidmore: Alice Barrett and Dollie Ree Logan, centers; Hope and Pauline Manchester, forwards and Artie Lee Parrish and Eula Miller, guards. Both games were played at Burlington Junction.

Darlington High School came up to Conception last night and smothered both the home teams under heavy scores. The score of the boys game was 23 to 6 and the girls 38 to 6. Richards of Conception refereed both of the games. The line-ups for the Conception teams were, boys: Defreece, Walters, Hedges, Shapley and Tannehill and for the girls, Maude Leininger and Agnes Wenhall, forwards; Ludema Tannehill and Marjorie Walters, guards; and Mildred Parrot and Thelma Buckridge, centers.

The Clearmont teams crossed over into Iowa last night and played Braddyville two games. The boys had an easy time defeating the Iowans, the score being 47 to 7. Second string men were used in the last half. Brwon, Britton, Lister, Linnebaugh, Beam, Milbank, Hoy and Wilson all played for Clearmont. In the girls game the score was tied when the final whistle blew. It was 6-all and the Braddyville girls chose not to play off the tie. Ira Newlon of Clearmont refereed both games.

Two victories were brought back to Elmo last night from Barnard by the two basketball teams. In the girls game they won 7 to 3 and in the boys game 16 to 7. Both of these games were hotly contested and the outcome was indoubt until the final whistle.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Proceedings have been commenced in the circuit court by Thomas J. Dunn to test the legality of the city ordinance in regard to the restraining of horse, mules, etc., running at large within the corporate limits.

On Monday night we were visited by snow and sleet, and on Tuesday morning the trees were groaning beneath their icy burdens. Winter is coming, and those who have plenty will do well to heap up the fire, put more blankets on the beds, and then sympathize with the poor.

Mr. Martin Walters has brought to our office the "beet that beat the beet that had formerly beat all other beets." It weighs 11½ pounds, measures 18¾ inches in circumference and is 31 inches long.

The citizens of Nodaway county to the number of about one hundred met at the court house in Maryville last Saturday and proceeded to the organization of the County Fair association. Twelve directors were selected, being M. B. W. Harman, A. P. Morehouse, G. N. Paige, Samuel T. Ware, John Ham, Samuel T. Kennedy, Joel Albright, W. R. McKenzie, Adelma Stingley, Thomas S. Marlin, William Anderson and William Swinford. The capital stock was fixed at $6,000. A. P. Morehouse was elected president; William Anderson, vice president; Ira K. Alderman, secretary, and John Ham, treasurer.

It will not be long until land in Nodaway county, which can now be bought at from $5 to $10 per acre will sell for double that amount. Therefore, all who can, should come now, while land is cheap.

not a clean tackle, the Tarkio man gaining only a momentary hold on one ankle, but it tripped the Bearcat captain and before he could regain his feet, the rest of the purple defenders were on him. It was Maryville's ball on the Tark eight-yard line. Foreman then carried the ball to the three-yard line on a cross buck.

It was here that the referee stepped in and turned the tide of the game. He imposed a fifteen-yard penalty on the Bearcats, carrying the ball back to the thirty-five yard line. Maryville's efforts to gain back the distance by forward passes were unsuccessful, and Webb kicked, outside. The kick was blocked, however, and a Maryville man recovered the ball. Again the referee reclared a penalty on the Bearcats, this time five yards. Maryville's chance to score was gone and the rest of the quarter was a punting duel.

The second quarter opened with Tarkio in possession of the ball on her own forty-yard line. An exchange of punts, in which Tarkio had the best of it, put Tarkio on Maryville's thirty-yard line, and from there the Tarkio backs carried the ball over on line smashes.

Tarkio kicked off and the Bearcats' attempts to gain by forward passing proved disastrous. In rapid succession, Tarkio made two more touchdowns on intercepted passes. They failed to kick one of the goals, making the score 20-0. Again before the end of the quarter, the Tarks made a well deserved score, when line smashes carried the ball to the pretty drop-kick over the crossbars. The score was 23-0.

Pickens went into the game for the first time at the beginning of the second half, and gain were a factor in the Bearcats belated good showing. In the third quarter, Maryville took the ball to the Tarkio twenty-yard line, and when the defending line held firm, Lundt attempted another outside kick. Tarkio was not caught asleep, however, and a Tarkio man recovered the ball on his own ten-yard line. It was then kicked out of danger.

The Bearcats made repeated attempts at the heavy Tarkio line, but it was not until the last quarter that the ball was finally pushed over the goal line for a touchdown. Webb missed goal, and the score was 23-6.

Tarkio made a desperate effort to score in the closing minutes of the game, but the Bearcats line always succeeded in checking the onslaught before the goal line was in danger.

L. L. Hoopes of Kansas City was referee and Red Brown, also of Kansas City, was umpire. Withrow of Tarkio was head linesman, while Maryville was assessed several severe penalties at critical times, the officials were fair and impartial.

The line-ups follow:

Tarkio—Littell le, R. Barr lt, Mitchell lg, Nicoll c, L. Barr rg, Withrow rt, Parks re, Kyle qb, Edwards and Williams fb, Stewart hb, Dragoo hb.

Substitutions — Maryville: Steiger for Ashcroft, Hays for Sawyers, Palmer for Earp, Young for Kirby, Pickens for Allan, Lundt for Foreman, Foreman for Lundt, Lundt for McMurry.

Touchdowns, Dragoo, Edwards 2, Pickens.
